LABORERS' LOCAL 265 PENSION FUND and PLUMBERS AND PIPEFITTERS LOCAL NO. 572 PENSION FUND,

Plaintiffs,

v.

iSHARES TRUST, et al.,

Defendants.

Judge Trauger
Magistrate Judge Knowles

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(b)(1)(A), Plaintiffs, Laborers’ Local 265 Pension Fund and Plumbers and Pipefitters Local No. 572 Pension Fund (“Plaintiffs”), hereby move for a 30-day extension of their deadline to file a motion to amend.

The Court has good cause to extend the deadline. This case originally asserted several claims under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (“ICA”). Defendants have made arguments concerning the interplay between different sections of the ICA, private rights of action, and demand futility. Some of these are issues of first impression in the Sixth Circuit or even nationally. The Court’s decision reached some, but not all, of Defendants’ arguments.

Plaintiffs' counsel are diligently reviewing their options: moving to amend, taking an appeal, or allowing the decision to stand. They continue to research the ICA, as well as other
